

Affordable Mobile Marketing

PassExpress is a mobile marketing solution that gives organizations of any size the same marketing advantages as larger corporations without breaking the bank. PassExpress increases customer loyalty and adds a visual component to the most powerful marketing method in history – word of mouth. Now customers can pass coupons and special offers along to their friends using mobile devices.

Digital Wallets are clutter free, and include GPS alerts and updates so coupons are easily managed, viewed, and redeemed

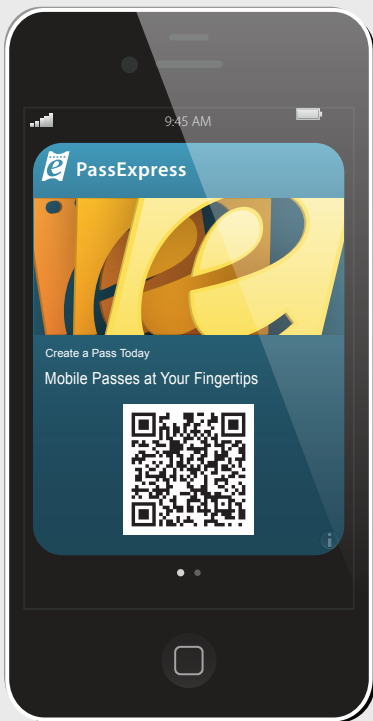

Ads with QR codes can be publicized in newspapers, magazines, flyers, and mailers. One quick scan, and coupons are uploaded to mobile devices

Go beyond paper ads, and utilize web advertising. QR codes can be scanned directly from a website on a computer screen

News travels fast from person to person, and coupons can too. QR codes can be scanned from one phone to another in seconds

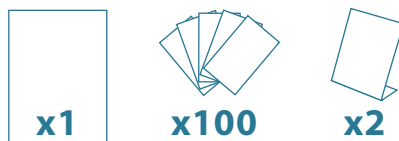

1. Use PassExpress to create unique advertisements with additional information on back, such as: Business Location, Website, Social Media Links, Contact Information, Business Hours, Disclaimers, and more.

2. Display posters at your place of business, in print ads, and online to help get the word out about special offers and events.

PassExpress offers print-ready posters, table stand displays and 3x5 cards based off of your pass.
